Counsel for Petitioner-Appellee

Pursuant to this Court's notice, Dkt. 110, Judge Jefferson Griffin files this response in opposition to Kalah Nicole Martin's motion for leave to file an amicus brief, to participate in oral argument, and to extend filing time, Dkt. 106.

Martin's brief does not "assert[]" "matters" that "are relevant to the disposition of the case." Fed. R. App. P. 29(a)(3). It is also untimely, without any adequate justification. See id. 29(a)(6). Accordingly, there is no basis to permit filing, nor is there any basis for this Court to grant "permission" to "participate in oral argument." Id. 29(a)(8).

Judge Griffin thus respectfully requests that this Court deny Martin's motion for leave to file an amicus brief, to participate in oral argument, and to extend filing time.

Respectfully submitted.
